How do I pay my SIPP fees?

We deduct our fees and those payable to third parties, such as your financial adviser or investment manager, directly from your SIPP. We do not issue invoices for our fees. To ensure fees can be paid in a timely manner, we require you to hold a minimum of £2,000 in cash, or other easily realisable assets, at all times in order to meet any liabilities that may arise.

Does VAT apply to fees?

All of our fees are subject to VAT.

I want a single investment SIPP; what fees apply to me?

The actual fees you will be charged depend on the investment option you choose and whether or not you are taking benefits from the SIPP. For example, if you have an investment portfolio, and are not taking benefits or using our additional services, you will only need to pay the set up and annual administration fees in the first year and the annual administration fee each year thereafter.

What fees do I pay when I convert my single investment SIPP to a full investment SIPP?

If you have a single investment SIPP and wish to convert to a full investment SIPP you will pay the full investment SIPP annual administration fee from the date of conversion. This will be pro rata to the next plan anniversary. You will also need to pay any additional investment related fees which apply to the investment choices you make. We reserve the right to charge a switch fee of £100 plus VAT should you make multiple switches in a 12 month period. If you convert from a single investment SIPP to a full investment SIPP in the first year we will charge the full investment option.

What fees do I pay when I convert my full investment SIPP to a single investment SIPP?

If you have a full investment SIPP and wish to convert to a single investment SIPP you will pay the single investment annual administration fee from the date of conversion. This will be pro rata to the next plan anniversary. You will need to ensure that your chosen investment lies within our criteria for a single investment SIPP.

What are your charges for taking a pension commencement lump sum?

We charge a fee of £100 plus VAT to pay a pension commencement lump sum but the total fees you pay may be more than this, depending on whether we need to obtain valuations and arrange for disinvestment of your SIPP's assets in order to pay your benefits.

What are your charges for taking flexi-access drawdown?

Our example scenario on page three illustrates the level of fees you might pay for flexi-access drawdown. We may need to value and disinvest assets in order to pay your benefits and the cost of this varies and is payable in addition.

What are your charges for taking an uncrystallised funds pension lump sum (UFPLS)?

The fee we charge for an uncrystallised funds pension lump sum is a single fee for each UFPLS payment. Should we need to value or disinvest assets in order to pay benefits, this will be charged in addition.

Is a single authorised unit trust, OEIC or TIP application for two funds one or two transactions?

This counts as two transactions. We do not hold unit trusts and OEICs directly under the SIPP, so if these are investments you wish to make, we recommend they are held within an investment manager's portfolio. Your investment into your portfolio with your chosen investment manager will count as one transaction, even if you have multiple investments within that portfolio. We can hold TIPs directly. When we complete an application form for a directly held insurance company TIP, we apply a transaction fee for each individual fund purchased or sold.

Do your fees include the investment manager's or stockbroker's fees?

No, our investment transaction fees relate to the recording and reconciling of investment transactions by us and do not include stockbroker, investment manager or nominee fees and charges.

How do you calculate fees for dealing with the purchase of property?

We charge a flat fee for dealing with the purchase of a property, although we do reserve the right to charge a higher price for particularly complex or time consuming transactions. We will appoint our retained solicitors to oversee all legal work on property assets in your SIPP. Our solicitors are accomplished in the purchase of property by a pension arrangement and the requirements of HMRC. Their costs are competitive and they are familiar with all aspects of the legal documentation involved in property purchase. You will need to consider other fees associated with the cost of the purchase, such as surveyors' fees, specialist risk reports, stamp duty land tax and VAT.

What services are covered by the annual property charge?

The annual property fee covers the additional complexity of the administration work we need to undertake where a scheme owns a property. It includes notifying you when a lease is due to expire, or rent reviews are due and dealing with insurance renewal documentation to ensure the property remains insured. Our services do not include property management, so you need to consider how you will manage any property held within your SIPP, which must be performed in accordance with the principles of good estate management.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Why do I need to pay a fee if my SIPP borrows money?

If your SIPP borrows to purchase a property, we charge a borrowing fee to cover the work we undertake to ensure the borrowing is within HMRC borrowing limits, for dealing with the mortgage, liaising with the lender, reviewing and completing borrowing documentation and setting up repayments, where required as part of the overall purchase process. The fee will vary, depending on lender.

Do your fees increase?

The annual administration fee may increase each year in line with annual increases in the index of Average Weekly Earnings as calculated from the last published month preceding the due invoice date. Fees for additional services are reviewed a from time to time any amendment to the charges will be notified to the member at least one month prior to their implementation.

If I use a service with an annual fee part way through the year will I be charged the full amount?

Annual administration fees are payable in advance from the commencement date of the SIPP. Any additional annual fees that first become payable, other than on the plan anniversary, will be pro rata to reflect the fee payable up to the next plan anniversary. The full annual fee will then be payable from the next plan anniversary.

Is there anything else I should know?

All fees quoted are those levied by Avalon. Additional fees and conditions may be applied by third parties for their services, including investment partners. The services and fees set out under the heading 'additional services' are indicative, but not necessarily inclusive of every additional service that might be requested. All flat fees quoted are those that we would seek to charge in normal situations.

Avalon reserves the right to:

- charge a proportionate fee for any work undertaken on an aborted or pending transaction;
- impose a late payment surcharge of 1% per month on outstanding fees;
- charge higher fees when the circumstances are unusually complex and/or time consuming. As the situation may not always be apparent from the outset, we will use our best endeavours to advise clients as soon as possible if it is intended to invoke this.

In the event of termination of services, all fees then due to Avalon shall be payable and no fees shall be refundable.

All scheme activities are subject to HMRC reporting requirements.
